

Engineer Your Biology. Regenerate by Design.

Discover the Regen PhD Pod: a breakthrough in regenerative wellness created by Professor Paul Lee, world-renowned scientist, engineer, and bestselling author.

Health should not be something we fix after it breaks: it should be something we design to stay strong, youthful, and resilient.

The Vision

A New Way to Think About Health

Professor Paul Lee has spent decades uniting medicine, engineering, and human biology.

His philosophy is simple: Regeneration by Design — proactively building energy, balance, and resilience before problems arise.

The Pod was created to:

- Recharge your energy
- Reinforce your resilience
- Restore your long-term vitality

What's Inside: The Science Made Simple

10 Breakthrough Technologies. One Intelligent System.

The Regen PhD Pod brings together ten cutting-edge technologies into one seamless experience. Each works in harmony to recharge, restore, and rebalance your body and all in a safe, calming, and non-invasive way.

✓ Cellular Repair & Regeneration

- Quantum Wave Light – Supports cell repair and communication.
- Infrared Cell Light – Recharges energy at the cellular level.
- Magnetic Flow – Boosts circulation and vitality.

✓ Detoxification & Circulation

- Detox Heat – Encourages natural flow, sweating, and toxin release.
- Ion Balance – Clears pollutants, restores balance, and promotes calm.
- Jade Energy Base – Soothes and stabilises internal energy.

✓ Energy Balance & Regulation

- Frequency Harmony – Aligns your body's natural rhythms.
- Cellular Power-Up – Activates your body's energy generators (mitochondria).
- Mind & Breath Balance – Calms stress and restores focus.
- Regenerative Cocoon – Creates the perfect restorative environment.
